www.gristmillfinearts.com

Grist Mill is an old John Deere dealership transformed into a 132 seat theater in 1979, with rustic walls that create a unique ambience and character. The theater offers a children's summer camp and community theater events throughout the year.

Glenwood ²

www.millsmasquers.org

Barton-Rowe Theatre & Mills Masquers started in 1977 when some friends gathered together who were interested in starting a community theater. The building has undergone changes throughout the years, as generations of family and friends have put on over 100 live productions of comedies, thrillers, musicals, mysteries, and melodramas. They love them all!

www.glenwoodia.com

The Davies Amphitheater has outdoor live entertainment from June to August. Check the website for details.

Shenandoah ³

www.switg.org

Southwest Iowa Theatre Group is the longest continually running community theater in Iowa, formed in 1957. They produce six plays a year ranging from drama to comedy to musicals.

Clarinda ⁴

www.clarindatheatre.org Clarinda Community Theater (CCT) held their first production of "The Glass Menagerie" in 1955 and has continued to provide live amateur theatre. The summer musical is a big highlight, traditionally held in the Clarinda High School (but has used more than 13 different performance venues.) CCT cast and crew have won many Iowa Community Theater Association Awards in Excellence for various productions.

Villisca ⁵

Rialto Theatre is a 230 seat theater available to rent for entertainment and informative programs.

Red Oak ⁶

www.wilsonartscenter.org

Wilson Performing Arts Center is a premier performance venue that opened its doors in February 2009. The Wilson provides educational, community and professional opportunities in a state-of-the-art building. A variety of music and dance classes are provided for all ages. The community theater and concert chorale feature some of the best southwest Iowa talent. The professional series will entertain and surprise you!

Corning ⁷

www.CorningOperaHouse.com

Corning Opera House Cultural Center is a grand old lady that was built in 1902. It underwent a $4.5 million restoration project that was completed in 2012. Our rich history lends itself to many stories on a backstage tour. Live performances, Community Theater, movies and rentals keep us active throughout the year.
